COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES

COMES NOW, Plaintiff, Terrence C. Tyler, hereinafter referred to as "Terry Tyler", by and through his attorney of record, J. Edward Hollington, J. Edward Hollington & Associates, P.A., and states for his complaint against the Defendants as follows:

I. JURISDICTION AND PARTIES

1. Jurisdiction of this Court is invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1343, and 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1985, 1988 and 2000(e) et seq.
2. Venue is proper before this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b).
3. Plaintiff, Terry Tyler is a resident of Albuquerque, Bernalillo County, New Mexico.
4. Defendant Eastern New Mexico University, hereinafter "ENMU", is a state university created pursuant to Section XII of the Constitution of New Mexico and NMSA 1978, § 21-3-29 [1953].
5. Defendant ENMU is governed by a Board of Regents pursuant to NMSA 1978, §

21-3-30 [1953].

6. ENMU is located in Portales, New Mexico.

7. Defendant Everett Frost at all times material to this action was President of ENMU.

8. Defendant Marshal Stinnett at all times material to this action was a member of the Board of Regents for ENMU.

9. Defendant Gary Musgrave, during all times material to this action, was Vice-President of Student Affairs for ENMU.

10. Defendant Rosemarie Stallman during all times material to this action was the Athletic Director for ENMU.

11. Defendant ENMU is an employer and is a person engaged in an industry affecting commerce which has fifteen (15) or more employees for each working day for twenty (20) or more calendar weeks in the current or preceding calendar year pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 2000(e)(b).

12. Plaintiff, Terry Tyler is an African-American, and as such is a member of a recognized protected group pursuant to Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act as amended in 1991.

II. STATEMENT OF FACTS

13. Terry Tyler was employed pursuant to a written contract, as Head Men's Basketball Coach of ENMU on July 1, 1998.

14. Terry Tyler played professional basketball from 1978 through 1992 with several National Basketball Association [NBA] teams, including the Detroit Pistons, Sacramento Kings and the Dallas Mavericks. At the time he was hired by ENMU, he had served as an Assistant Basketball Coach at the University of Notre Dame for approximately three (3) years.

15. Terry Tyler was excited about the head basketball coach position at ENMU. He looked forward to using his skills and experience as an NCAA All-American outstanding collegiate player, NBA player, and an assistant coach with a successful Big East conference team to help ENMU turn its program around.

16. ENMU Men's Basketball Program had experienced several losing seasons prior to Terry Tyler's employment as head coach.

17. Defendant Rosemarie Stallman, as Athletic Director was Terry Tyler's immediate supervisor. Rosemarie Stallman is an Anglo female.

18. Defendants Everett Frost, Marshal Stinnett, and Gary Musgrave are all Anglo males.

19. At the time Terry Tyler was hired as the new Head Men's Basketball Coach, the Defendants knew and understood that it would take three (3) to five (5) years to turn the Men's Basketball Program into a winning team.

20. Recruitment of players is a critical part of rebuilding a men's basketball program.

21. When Terry Tyler assumed his position as Head Men's Basketball Coach in July of 1998, most of the recruitment of players had been accomplished under the direction of the former basketball coach.

22. Terry Tyler is married to Ms. Sara Tyler, an Anglo female.

23. Shortly before Terry Tyler was hired as Head Men's Basketball Coach, Defendant Rosemarie Stallman, told him that "he should expect problems from the community because of his marriage to a white woman".

24. In November, 1998, Terry Tyler terminated the assistant coach and graduate assistant, who had been part of the prior coach's staff at ENMU. Defendant Rosemarie Stallman assured him that an assistant coach would be hired for the Men's Basketball Program in February or March, 1999.

25. Defendants Rosemarie Stallman and Everett Frost did not provide an assistant coach for Terry Tyler until August of 1999.

26. The recruitment of new players begins in May of each year.

27. Terry Tyler had repeatedly requested the Defendants to authorize hiring of an assistant coach and Terry Tyler interviewed an assistant coach and recommended him to Defendant Rosemarie Stallman in March of 1999.

28. Terry Tyler explained to Defendant Rosemarie Stallman that he urgently needed an assistant coach so he could effectively recruit for the next 1999/2000 basketball season. Terry Tyler was unable to effectively recruit between May and August of 1999, because the Defendants would not provide him an assistant coach. All other head coaches of major sports departments of ENMU were provided assistant coaches.

29. In 1999, Terry Tyler requested permission to hire a graduate assistant to assist him in carrying out his job duties and functions as head basketball coach.

30. Terry Tyler recommended Ms. Carmen Alexander, an African-American female, for the graduate assistant position.

31. Defendant Rosemarie Stallman refused to allow Carmen Alexander to work as a graduate assistant for Terry Tyler.

32. All other coaches of major sports departments of ENMU were provided graduate assistants.

33. No disciplinary action was ever taken against Terry Tyler during his employment with ENMU.

34. While Terry Tyler was employed as Head Men's Basketball Coach, he and his wife experienced overt racism, examples of which included: obscene telephone calls made to his wife calling her a "nigger lover", vandalism of their home and property, including broken windows, several attempts to break into their home, and statements made to Terry Tyler that he was being treated differently because he is black and married to a white person.

35. Terry Tyler and his wife reported the threats and trespassers on their property to ENMU Campus Police. It was learned that one white male was responsible for one of the obscene telephone calls of racial epithets, and he was an ENMU employee. The employee was terminated, but later rehired by ENMU.

36. The Men's Basketball Team experienced a losing season for the 1999 basketball season.

37. The standard time for turning a losing team into a winning team in collegiate basketball is three (3) to five (5) years.

38. Terry Tyler expressed concerns about discriminatory actions against he and his wife to Chris Mullins, the Human Resources Director and he sought counseling from the university psychologists from November, 1998 through June, 2000, to deal with the emotional distress caused by discriminatory actions against he and his wife.

39. On February 12, 2000, Defendant Gary Musgrave, told Terry Tyler that he should either resign or be terminated. Defendant Musgrave told Terry Tyler that he was "speaking on behalf of the Board of Regents".

40. On February 15, 2000, Terry Tyler reported to Defendant Rosemarie Stallman the conversation he had just a few days before with Defendant Musgrave. He expressed his concern that he was being forced to resign or be terminated. Defendant Rosemarie Stallman told Terry Tyler that he was a good coach and the fact that he was black was the basis of the efforts to get rid of him.

41. On February 24, 2000, Defendant Rosemarie Stallman, confirmed that Defendants Everett Frost, Marshal Stinnett, and Gary Musgrave intended to terminate Terry Tyler's employment. Defendant Rosemarie Stallman warned Terry Tyler that if he filed any claims against ENMU it would be hard for him to get another coaching job.

42. Defendant Rosemarie Stallman told Terry Tyler that he was being terminated because he was black, married to a white women, and "people around here don't know how to deal with other cultures".

43. At the time Terry Tyler's employment was terminated, his annual salary was $61,133.00, plus benefits.

44. On March 7, 2000, Terry Tyler filed a Charge of Discrimination based on race with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission as Charge No. 390A00529.

45. The Defendants received notice of Terry Tyler's EEOC charge on or about March 10, 2000.

46. On March 17, 2000, Defendant Rosemarie Stallman, told Terry Tyler his contract as Head Men's Basketball Coach would not be renewed after June 30, 2000. Defendant Rosemarie Stallman, also told Terry Tyler that he was being stripped of his duties and responsibilities as Head Men's Basketball Coach and would be reassigned to another department.

47. On March 21, 2000, Terry Tyler's attorney wrote a letter to Defendant Everett Frost complaining of the retaliatory actions taken against Terry Tyler because he had filed an EEOC charge.

48. On or about April 26, 2000, the Defendants hired a new Men's Head Basketball Coach, Shawn Scanlan, an Anglo male.

49. At all times material to this action, ENMU had five hundred (500) or more employees.

50. Terry Tyler's race was a motivating factor in the decision to fire him.

51. Terry Tyler suffered damages in the form of lost income, including back pay, front pay, compensatory damages including emotional distress, other pecuniary losses to be proven at trial and has experienced mental anguish and humiliation as a result of the Defendants' actions against him.

52. The individual Defendants' conduct constitute willful, wanton, and malicious acts against Terry Tyler, thus entitling Mr. Tyler to seek punitive damages.

53. Terry Tyler received his Notice of Right to Sue on or about September 27, 2000.
